Sports

"I can only begin to tell you how popular this service is with our team parents! We have already had numerous situations where we needed to contact everyone due to weather conditions or changes in the schedule, but the most impressive came with a field conflict. We redirected our parents to the new location before many of them even arrived to the field of dispute, saving the practice time and a bunch of frustration for new players and their parents. I imagine that you receive messages like this one with great frequency due to the expedience and reliable nature of your service. We thank you Heaven for the personal time taken in the start up process and for your continued support.."

Exceeding Your Expectations

One Call Now is based in Troy, Ohio, which is located North of Dayton and West of Columbus. It is a community of hard-working people with strong ethics. It is where we find people who understand the everyday needs of the schools, families and businesses who we serve. These are the people of One Call Now who ensure that our systems work flawlessly, our voice messages are clear and timely and our service is handled in the manner in which we would like to be served.

Our staff is dedicated to exceeding your needs and providing superlative, personal support. Our engineers and developers are constantly improving our features and capabilities. Everyone is driven to make you, our client, the most important aspect of our business. To this end, we have created the most economical and feature-rich message delivery service available today.

Sophisticated, yet simple to use, robust yet affordable, fast message delivery speed and effective systems integration... these are the elements of the One Call Now system that customers appreciate. At One Call Now, we guarantee your satisfaction. Keep your staff and citizens well informed with One Call Now.

I have found One Call Now to be an extremely valuable tool this past season. I used it for last minute practice cancellations, game day field changes, rescheduled games, and to conduct surveys to get the majority opinion when deciding which tournaments to attend. The team parents were likewise impressed with the phone messaging service and appreciated getting the information directly to them when they needed it, eliminating the need to check e-mail constantly.

FEATURES

Create & Manage Your Roster

Create Your Roster You can enter your roster by logging in to our website and entering the names and phone numbers into our easy to use Roster management tool.

Manage Your Roster After your initial loading, use the roster management web pages to add, change and delete members and numbers as needed.

Recording & Sending Messages

Send a Message Dial the One Call Now toll free number at 1-877-698-3261. Just follow the prompts to record and send your message.

Pre-Record Your Message Introduction Your Message Introduction will play before every message your group hears. (i.e. "This is Joe from the Lightnings.") You can turn the introduction on or off from our web site.

What Happens During Message Delivery

Caller ID Displays YOUR Number Your phone number can be shown on the call recipient's Caller ID display.

Dials Multiple Phone Numbers You can enter up to four phone numbers as necessary for each member. The system can call multiple locations at once (such as home, cell, and office) to make sure everyone gets the message.

Delivers To Voice Mail & Answering Machines

If a person answers, they hear your message. If a machine answers, the message is left on their answering machine.

Redials Busy & No-Answers One Call Now redials busy numbers and no-answers until your message is delivered. Calls are re-tried twice the first hour, then every hour until evening curfew.

Retrieving Messages Remotely

Call In To Listen To Your Message Any group member can call 1-877-698-3261 to listen to your current message. So even if your members are traveling, they can still get the word.

Subgroups & Messengers

Note: Subgroup & Messengers available on selected packages only

Subgroups A Subgroup is a defined subset of people within your roster. Your roster can be broken up into subgroups such as: age, schedule, teams, position, etc. Subgroups allow you to send unique messages to each individual subgroup. As the Group Leader, you may send messages to your entire group or individual subgroups.

Messengers The Group Leader can also create Messengers. A messenger can be given privileges to record and send messages to one or more sub-groups. For example, the team manager, as a Messenger, can send messages to a group of numbers that you specify.

Group Polling & Online Reports

Poll Your Group When you record your message, you can give your group members choices for a response. For example: "If you can volunteer Saturday, press 1. If you can help Sunday, press 2." Just remember to write down which choices go with which numbers! You can listen to the results on the phone or view them online.

View Online Reports After your message has been delivered, you may log on to the website and view the results of your message delivery. View whether your message was delivered to a person or answering machine, and what time each member was reached. Call reports also list numbers that have been tried dozens of times and never answered, and numbers that have been disconnected.

Delivery Times & Time Zones

Choose Call Delivery Times Our default calling time sends messages between 7am and 9pm. All times are calculated for the local time of the member we call. You can override the default calling times during message recording if you need to send an urgent message. You may also change the default times for all calls at our web site.

Continue Trying Tomorrow The system can be set to try calling tomorrow if they did not get the call today.

Time Zones The system automatically compensates for time zones, to start and stop calling your members at the right local time.

Privacy Policy & Phone Number Removal

Privacy Policy We will never reveal personal information about you or your group.

Do Not Call List Any member, who wishes NOT to be called, can press '0' after listening to your message and be transferred to our system where they can request removal of their phone number. One Call Now will delete them from your roster, and send you an email notification. Members can also go to the website and click on REMOVE MY NUMBER on the home page.

Toll-Free Support

Live support is always available from One Call Now by calling 877-698-3262 to help you load your rosters and send messages.
